Online's No Good TV goes to broadcast

Staff report

Aug 20, 2007

Edgy Internet site No Good TV said late last week that it is making the leap to television with a new show that will feature the site's irreverent mix of celebrity interviews and sketch-comedy.

"Late Show With David Letterman" former producer Robert Morton is said to be executive producing along with 3 Arts Entertainment.

The show will be hosted by the Web site's Carrie Keagan and Shark Firestone.
