

VH1's 'The Critics' Choice: Best Movies Of 2007' Takes an Inside Look at the Year's Most Significant Performances In Film

The Pre-Awards Season Special Featuring BFCA Critics' Sam Rubin, Pete Hammond, Jeanne Wolf, Carrie Keagan And Mark S. Allen Will Premiere Saturday, December 15 at 10 PM (ET/PT)

NEW YORK, Dec. 3 /PRNewswire/ -- As the new television network home for The Broadcast Film Critics Association's (BFCA) "Critics' Choice Awards," VH1 and the cinematic experts from the BFCA are here to guide you on the most important movies and performances of the year in our pre-awards season bonanza, "The Critics' Choice: Best Movies of 2007." This round table discussion will premiere on Saturday, December 15 at 10 PM (ET/PT). Select footage from the round table discussion will be available online at <http://criticschoice.vh1.com> on December 18.

"The Critics' Choice: Best Movies of 2007" is a debate and inside look at the nominees for the upcoming Critics' Choice Awards. Our moderator Sam Rubin, from KTLA's "Good Day LA," will preside over a four-person panel of BFCA critics that includes Pete Hammond, a film critic for Maxim Magazine as well as awards columnist for the Los Angeles Times, Jeanne Wolf, a widely respected critic and entertainment journalist for Parade Magazine, Carrie Keagan, the naughty critic from NO GOOD TV and the hyper-opinionated entertainment anchor from CW31's "Good Day Sacramento," Mark S. Allen. The critics will debate about the best films and performances of 2007, while giving viewers the inside track on who has the best shot at winning a Critics' Choice Award(TM) -- the most historically reliable predictor of OSCAR(TM) GOLD!

Since its inception in 1995, the "Critics' Choice Awards" has become a star-studded bellwether event of the movie awards season. The BFCA consistently picks nominees and winners that go on to garner more Academy Award nominations and wins than any other movie awards show. This year, actor and comedian D.L. Hughley will host the "13th Annual Critics' Choice Awards" gala LIVE from the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium on Monday, January 7 at 9 PM (ET/PT). Presenters and special guests will be announced as they are confirmed.

"The Critics' Choice: Best Movies of 2007" is a production of VH1 with Jane Mun and Patrizia DiMaria serving as producers and Lee Rolontz and Joey Berlin as executive producers.
